Hi Chris,

Friday, 12 August 2022

Further to our conversation of earlier today, I'm writing to confirm the pausing of the appointment setting campaign with the required four week notice as agreed.

As I explained, the sheer volume of appointments generated by your team has taken us by surprise and we are busy trying to recruit additional staff our end to cope with the additional workload.

Clearly this is frustrating for us both as it's stunting growth but it's necessary for the short-term as I know you understand. You are literally a victim of your own success!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Jordan and his great team for the fantastic work done to date. It's not just the volume but also the quality of appointments that have impressed from the very start. The whole service from you is professional and highly competent.

You've asked me to pass comment on your service to use as a testimonial, but I would think the fact that we're stopping because we can't keep up with you is all any potential client would need to know!

Thanks Chris, I will be in touch as soon as possible to reinstate the service and thanks again for everything to date, highly impressive!

Best wishes
